with ref to the above forwards a list showing particulars regarding the existing teachers of the jail at Bangalore and they are the allowance that each get and the authority for the same

Subd with reference to the GI Secy's Query at para 3 Papers. It is seen from the statement sent up by the DG of Prisons that there are 5 religious teachers for the Bc Jail as noted in the margin getting a Conveyance allowance of Rs 10 pm

Swamy Sivananda - Hindu (Ramakrishna mute)
2) Mr Yoganathan - Roman Catholic
3) T.N Bhennappa - Lingayat
4) N Subba Raya Das - Brahmin
5) Jakkaji Nageswara - Mohamedan

As the remuneration payable to the religious teachers is termed Conveyance allowance the Comptroller insists on certificates of having used Conveyance and so it is proposed to change the Conveyance allowance into monthly honorarium - This is in accordance with the recommendation of the DG of Prisons

There are 5 religious teachers for the BC Jail and 2 for the City Sub Jail. They visit the Jails on Sundays to impart moral and religious instruction to the Convicts of the different persuations. They are now being paid a sum of Rs 10 each, and this is called Conveyance allowance. The amounts are drawn on Contigent bills and disbursed to the teachers As the allowance is called a Conveyance allowance the Comptroller, in one instance refused to pass the Claim in the absence of a Conveyance Certificate In his letter dated 5th Jan 1928 the Superintendent BC Jail has explained the difficulties in furnishing such a certificate

To get over the difficulty the D G P Suggests that the allowances that are being paid now to these teachers may be ~~called~~ treated as Honorarium and be drawn along with the
